Fun Facts

2017

FUN FACT:
The Moorhead Dairy Queen is credited with the invention of the Dilly Bar and they will also happily make your Blizzard just the way you like it.

TIP:
Recently opened in downtown Fargo, Young Blood Coffee Co. showcases coffees from the west coast.

Hunt for bison in Fargo-Moorhead…a scavenger hunt for painted bison, that is. You’ll find several painted bison throughout the area. Stop by the Visitors Center for a list of locations.

FUN FACT:
Fargo-Moorhead has over 30 miles of cross country ski trails within city limits.

TIP:
Every Sunday evening Junkyard Brewing Company hosts Beer & Hymns – have a beer and sing along with some classic gospel music.

FUN FACT:
The real wood chipper from the movie “Fargo” is on display at the Fargo-Moorhead Visitors Center.

FUN FACT:
None of the movie “Fargo” was actually filmed in Fargo, ND.

TIP:
Try a rainbow bagel at Boppa’s Bagels!

FUN FACT:
The FM bike share program holds the US record for the highest checkout of bikes per day.

What’s New:

Mint + Basil is a new kitchen and home boutique in downtown Fargo that offers a variety of beautiful things for your home… and it also makes for some exceptional Instagram photos.

FUN FACT:
The Red River flows north, which is rare.

TIP:
Leave your mark in Fargo. Check out Art Alley, the legal street art wall located on 1st Ave N between 4th & 5th St in downtown Fargo.

TIP:
Residents of the Fargo-Moorhead community know how to make the best of cold winters.

FUN FACT:
This ship sailed to Norway. You can now see it on display at the Hjemkomst Center.
