1. Uffda! Exclamation [uff-duh]
Proclaiming how tired or overwhelmed you are.
“Uffda, it’s been a long day!”

2. You Betcha! Phrase [yoo’beCHə]
Frequently heard after “Oh ya”, use this to answer a question instead of saying “yes”.
“Did you watch the Bison game this weekend?”
“Oh ya, you betcha!”

3. Hotdish: (n) [hät-diSH]
Midwestern word for casserole, usually made with tater tots and some kind of meat and cream mixture.
“Grandma is whipping up her famous tater tot hotdish for supper, you’d better stop by.”

4. Pop: (n) [pœp]
The Midwestern word for soda.
“Norm, will you grab a pop for me while you’re up?”

5. Ope! Exclamation [ōhp]
Used to show recognition of a mistake or minor accident, often as part of an apology.
“Ope! Didn’t see you there, sorry about that.”

6. What you should pack
- Parka or any long, cozy coat
- Mittens or gloves
- Hat (we recommend a nice trapper hat)
- Extra socks
- Sweater
- Extra flare
- Scarf
- Warm boots (no need to dress fancy, the uglier the boot, the warmer it usually is)

Layers – Once you get inside, you can expect the heat to be cranked up to high. Plan to take off your heaviest layers if you’re going anywhere.

7. Drink like a Midwesterner.
   - Add a pickle to your Coors or Bud Light. Seriously, it’s really good.
   - Order a Bloody Caesar, not a Bloody Mary. Fargoans love these spins on the classic.
   - Warm up with a coffee no matter the season. Summer or winter, Fargo runs on caffeine.

8. Fargo. Not just a movie.
   Thanks to the Coen brothers film Fargo, there are some misconceptions about Fargo (the city).
   In reality, the only thing you might recognize from the film is the iconic Woodchipper prop, which can be found in the Visitors Center. Fargo is a city on the rise, with an artistic culture, amazing food, and colorful personality. We hope you visit and see for yourself why Fargo is unlike anything you’d expect from seeing the movie.
We get all sorts of questions about getting to Fargo. And we’re here to tell ya, it’s much easier than you think.

> Can I fly into Fargo?
Yes! Fargo’s Hector International Airport (code FAR) has direct flights from all over the country. Plenty of connecting flights will bring you here, too, flying through places like Dallas, Chicago, Denver, and Minneapolis.

> How do I reach Fargo by car?
We’re at the cross-section of I-29 and I-94, so whatever direction you’re driving, you can’t miss us. It only takes about 3.5 hours to reach us from Minneapolis, Winnipeg, and Sioux Falls.

> Any other ways to reach you?
Looking for adventure? Board the Amtrak train, which rolls straight into the heart of Downtown Fargo. Ride in a cozy sleeper car from Chicago or northern Montana. You can also get on in Minneapolis for a quick ride up.

Buses also run from major cities into Fargo. See page 48 for these.

> Do you have Uber?
Contrary to popular belief, we do not get around in covered wagons – we have Uber and we even have Lyft.

Several traditional taxi companies also operate in the area (see page 48 for all of them).

> How long does it take to get from the airport to my hotel?
It takes less than 30 minutes to get anywhere in the city... probably more like 10 to 15.

> Do I need a car to get around Fargo?
If you’d like to have a car, you can rent one easily from the airport or around town (see page 48 for car rental companies).

While Downtown Fargo is very walkable, you may want to get elsewhere without needing a car. The LineFM is a free circular bus route connecting Downtown Fargo and its sister city Moorhead. To get to other major areas, opt for the MATBUS service.

a thick and creamy dumpling-based soup popular in Germany.
Can be found at: Kroll’s Diner or Rising Bread Co.

NOT JUST MEAT & POTATOES

We do love a good steak and potato, don’t we? But the culinary diversity in Fargo serves up much more than meat and spuds. You’ll have to taste it to believe it, so here are a few places to get started.

The Shack on Broadway has been voted the best breakfast spot in Fargo year after year. Grab one of their famous caramel rolls… they’re made fresh daily, and only available until they’re gone.

A great stop for breakfast or lunch, BernBaum’s – a Nordic-Jewish deli tucked into a mid-century modern antique shop – serves house-made bagels with schmear and delicious coffee every day of the week.

For a classic meal with a twist, stop by Rosey’s Bistro for gourmet grilled cheese sandwiches and seafood. Try a BGT (bacon-gouda-tomato) or Roasted Oyster Rockefeller appetizers (creamed spinach with glazed brie).

Featuring Dakota-grown ingredients, Blackbird Woodfire cooks up amazing pizzas in as little as 90 seconds in a 3,500 lb wood-fired oven, giving the crust its unique texture.

For fine dining, Maxwell’s is a must. Artisan ingredients and culinary genius make for impressive entrees in an upscale setting of dark wood and modern finishes.

Continuously voted the best sushi in town, Wasabi sits right next door to Poke Bowl, which dishes up Hawaiian-style poke.

Happen to be a food and music lover? Check out Vinyl Taco. Menus come on album covers, margaritas are served with giant rosemary leaves, and records spin from behind the bar.

Fantastic Italian food, served up by 1920s gangsters in old-fashioned, mobster-like decor easily make Speak Easy a “must try”.

Sausage anyone? Stop in at Wurst Bier Hall and sit at long, beer hall tables as you dine on sausages, sauerkraut, and even kroephla and borscht soups. Don’t forget a bocot of beer from one of thirty-six on tap.

GET Crafty

Fargo likes its beer... a lot. While you're in town, weave your way through the city's eight craft breweries and sample some locally-brewed, happy goodness.

Wine
Six wineries (pg. 44) surround Fargo. You can sample wines in their tasting rooms, or join them for grape harvesting in early fall.

Cider
The 1st urban cidery in North Dakota, Wild Terra, can be found in Downtown Fargo. Sample local and regional ciders in a beautiful reclaims stable.

Mead
Made by fermenting honey and water, mead packs a punch... anywhere between 11 and 14% ABV!

Spirits
Proof Artisan Distillers is one of only two distilleries in North Dakota. They make the state's first-ever legally produced bourbon.
FOOD & DRINK

BOOM, Roasted

Stambeno’s Coffee Bar

Stambeno’s Coffee Bar was the first into the craft coffee scene, serving from their cozy, basement location on Broadway. Not a coffee person? They also have delicious teas.

Soon after, Twenty Below Coffee Co. joined the mix as the only coffee shop in Fargo that roasts its own beans in-house, using them to make a mean cup of Joe.

Straying from the warm and cozy vibe, Young Blood Coffee Co. serves West Coast inspired flavors (and gourmet toast!) from a bright and minimalist cafe.

Fargoans are fueled by coffee. Maybe it’s due to our cold winters, or simply because it’s so darn good. Either way, there’s no shortage of places to grab a cup.

Red Raven Espresso Parlor is like the hip younger sister, though it’s been around longer. The space hosts a melting pot of personalities and doubles as a music venue, comedy stage, and place for creativity and equality.

The Seattle-themed shop, Babb’s Coffee House, serves up a mean cup of Dancing Goats (house roast). Atomic Coffee’s windows look onto the main drag from an industrial interior.

Outside of Downtown, Beans Coffee Bar’s drive-through puts a homemade doughnut on every cup (and makes a puppuccino for your dog). You can also find North Dakota-nice service at Bully Brew Coffee and Red River Coffee Co., along with delicious coffee.

Nichole’s FINE PASTRY

Just off the hustle of Main Avenue in Downtown Fargo, this cozy shop makes you feel like you’ve stepped into a French bakery. Nichole’s serves the city’s best dessert – and that’s not just our opinion, locals have voted on it, many times.

It’s the type of place you encounter off the beaten path. The walls are decorated with the work of local artists, complemented by desserts that are just as much a work of art.

Overflowing shelves of small-batch, delicate pastries, cookies, truffles, and decadent cakes fill the welcoming interior. Try the lemon curd cake that Food Network voted as the ‘Best Cake in North Dakota’.

While dessert comes first at Nichole’s, if your taste buds need a break from sweets, try their savory dishes. They serve all three major meals, with inventive sandwiches and warming soups for lunch and a weekend dinner menu made of whatever the skilled chef dreams up each week.

If you do decide to come just for a treat, we won’t judge... If you’re not upswept up by the time you leave, you did it wrong.

Finds, Scoops, and Sweet Souvenirs

Sandy’s Donuts

Momufries include a Bismark, a Maple Bacon Long John, and a caramel roll.

Carol Wiedman’s Candy Co.

Take a bag of famous ND “Chippers” (chocolate-covered potato chips) home with you.

Yeslie’s Sweet Shop

An entire wall dedicated to candy and cupcakes! Yes, please. Mix and match gummies and candies for your take-home goodie bag.

Sweet Dreams Confections

Every tooth after you try their hand-dipped chocolate, homemade fudge, fresh gelato, and old fashioned candies.
Head DOWNTOWN
The best way to tackle a shopping trip in Downtown Fargo

Start your adventure on Main Avenue. Look to MINT + BASIL for modern and whimsical home items, and Onyx & Pearl, Kittsona, Jessie Blue, and Lot 2029 for the trendiest boutique clothing.

Onward to Broadway, The Red Silo will greet you and provide one-of-a-kind vintage items while neighboring Charmed Boutique supplies hip women’s clothing from sizes S to 3XL. Off the main floor in Roberts Commons, you’ll find Pink Thread Boutique which carries all things chic and comfy.

From there, check out the historical Loretta building from Roberts Alley and take in all of the quirky clothing in Fowler’s along with “try before you buy” olive oils, balsamics, and artisanal cheeses in Pinch and Pour, perfect for a tasty souvenir.

Head north on Broadway to Kindred People, Shannon Lee, Proper, and O’Day Cache, all located on the same block as the Historical Fargo Theatre.

Continue on to Unglued for handmade artist favorites. Find your new favorite pair of shoes at Boots & Heels. Right next door, Stablo will make you feel like you’re actually in Scandinavia with Hygge items like Danish cookbooks, Nordic sweets, and linens adorned with Dala horses.

The final stop: Zandbroz. You’ll feel right at home when you step in; browse through hundreds of books or pick at the huge variety of anything else you might imagine.

From eccentric boutiques to high-end fashion, Downtown Fargo will not disappoint.

Fargo is chock full of entertainment, places to eat and drink, and of course, shopping. If you’re looking for local goodies and boutiques, head to Fargo’s historic downtown.

3 Places TO FIND LOCALLY MADE PRODUCTS

1 Unglued
Considered by most as a real-life City Store, Unglued has countless items handmade by local artists. Wander through this one-of-a-kind boutique to find North Dakota themed magnets, white kitchen towels, and Fargo-themed coffee mugs.

2 Red River Market
On Saturdays July–October, downtown Fargo comes alive during this artisan fair with local musicians, farmers and makers. From vegan cookie dough to handmade planners, you’ll easily find your one-of-a-kind gift to remind you of Fargo.

3 Fargo Stuff
Each item here is inspired by the city of Fargo. From ND State quarter magnets that say “you betcha” to home decor signs shaped like North Dakota and t-shirts designed by local artists in their own original style.

SHOPPING

SHOPPING AROUND TOWN

> 45TH STREET
Becoming one of Fargo's biggest retail centers, 45th Street has stores that range from Scheels Sporting Goods to fashion forward boutiques like Blue Daisy Boutique. South of I-94, shoppers can go from second hand stores like Clothes Mentor & Plato's Closet to high-end women's shops like Lauries, Leela & Lavender and the Black Frame along with the beautiful home decor store, Eco Chic Home.

> WEST ACRES REGIONAL SHOPPING CENTER
The main retail center in Fargo-Moorhead with four major anchors, nearly 130 stores and services, and a large food court.

> MOORHEAD CENTER MALL
Just across the Red River from Downtown Fargo, the Moorhead Center Mall houses antiques, a quilt shop, home decor, restaurants, and more!

> ANTIQUES
Fargo-Moorhead has many antique shops throughout the area. Shop around for repurposed items, antique furniture, or even vintage vinyl records (pg. 44).

> BLOCK 8
Located just off of Main Avenue in Downtown Fargo, Block 8 is full of craftsperson, artisans, painters, and more. Shopping here will allow you to find vintage clothing, accessories, and antiques.

> 13TH AVENUE
The 13th Avenue corridor, which spans from the West Acres Mall into West Fargo, boasts many name brand stores at low prices! Some of these include: TJ Maxx, Marshalls/Home Goods, Kohls, and Old Navy, just to name a few.

> 25TH STREET MARKETPLACE
From Dakota Pride products and other gifts at Vintage Point to fine art at Underbrush Gallery, the 25th Street Marketplace is located in the heart of Fargo and is a one-of-a-kind shopping experience.
NO MOUNTAINS?
NO PROBLEM.

Most people don’t think of Fargo as an outdoors destination, but they’re wrong. See what there is to do on wheels, on foot, and on the water.

On wheels

Bike

200 miles of bike trails in Fargo-Moorhead make for an excellent day out.

Great Rides Bike Share program can get you a road bike for a minimal cost. If you want to rent your two-wheeled ride while in town.

TIP: Want to meet some locals? Consider joining one of Great Northern Bicycle Co.’s organized city rides on Monday or Tuesday nights from spring through fall.

Mountain biking is available in a handful of parks around town such as Gooseberry Park (3.5 miles) and MB Johnson Park (4 miles).

Bikes can thank the Fargo-Moorhead Trailbuilders for these – they are dedicated to building, maintaining, and promoting the non-paved, natural trails in the area.
On foot

Hike
MB Johnson Park (2 miles)
Red River Trail of the North (5 miles)

TIP: For longer hikes, head outside the city to Buffalo River State Park (1-20 MILES) or Sheyenne Grasslands.

Golf
Seven public courses (pg. 46).

TIP: Forgot your clubs? Play foot golf (kicking soccer balls into giant holes) at El Zagal Golf Course. Or try out one of disc golf courses (pg. 46).

Go Birding
The Red River provides ample birding opportunities, and a restoration initiative has been working to rehabilitate the natural habitats of birds of the region.

On the water

Canoe or Kayak
The Red River separates Fargo and Moorhead. If you brought your own kayak, access the river from one of our many boat ramps (pg. 46).

If not, that’s okay! Kayak and canoe rentals at Viking Ship Park and Lindenwood Park allow you to grab a boat and head out onto the river for a few hours.

Fish
Pick a spot along the shore and cast your line. The Red has catfish, muskellunge, northern pike, bass,
walleye, and more!
SO YOU'RE HERE TO:

Visit family
Grab the entire clan and meet some of the rare cold-weather species living at the Red River Zoo. Or stop back in time at the pioneer village, Bonanzaville, USA. Need space for the kiddos to run? The Children's Museum at Yunker Farm has acres built for activity, and the kids can interact with the 50+ indoor exhibits.

Catch a game
Before cheering on your team, get your smaller sports fans active. If the weather's nice, practice your swing in the batting cages at Thunder Road or compete in a round of mini golf. Or, play foot golf (where you kick soccer balls into giant holes) at El Zagal Golf Course instead. For indoor fun, Scheels Sporting Goods has a Ferris wheel and multiple sports simulation games.

Bond
(without phones!)
Hit the water and rent a kayak or canoe (with your younger kids, rent double kayaks) for a paddle along the Red River or rent a fleet of bikes and cruise through Lindenwood Park. Then head to one of Fargo's escape rooms and solve puzzles as a family.

Complete your shopping
Downtown? Find Fargo's street art murals (pg. 42) for great family photo ops. Near West Acres Mall? Leave older kids at Clay Your Way painting a ceramic masterpiece that they’ll fire for you to take home as a souvenir.

Make a stop on a road trip
Bottled up energy from riding in the car means you need something active. Skyzone Trampoline Park lets the kids bounce off the walls...literally. Then, stop at the Fargo-Moorhead Visitors Center for a picture with the original Woodchopper from the movie Fargo (perfect Christmas card material).

Get cultural
Attend an MSUM Planetarium show dedicated to learning about space and the skies. Then, discover the aircraft that take to those skies at the Fargo Air Museum. Cap off the evening with an unforgettable performance — musicals, ballets, operas, plays, and kid-friendly shows.

Fargo-Moorhead may have a “cold” factor for many months of the year, but its “cool” factor happens all year round — and that is largely due to our vibrant arts and culture scene. Many people who visit our area for the first time will notice the colorful public art sprinkled throughout the metro, but that is only the surface of what our fine city has to offer in the arts.

Our community boasts a variety of high quality visual, performance and culinary experiences for people of all ages and backgrounds. No matter when you visit, you will always find something to do that will entertain you, make you think and show you why so many people choose to live here despite our cold weather.

Want to see art in action? Check out performances from our local symphony, opera, ballet, dance companies, concert bands, choirs or theatre organizations.

How about expanding your mind with visual art? Explore our local galleries and museums, one of which is the largest accredited art museum between here and Seattle, and another that has a Viking ship smack dab in the middle of the room. There’s also a good chance you’ll see original art exhibits in a number of our local restaurants, coffee shops and breweries. That’s how much our community loves to support local art!

We also have a historic theatre, the oldest art’s co-op in the country, an arts incubator and much more that makes Fargo-Moorhead a creative, hidden gem of the Midwest. We cannot wait to share our arts community with you — and maybe even inspire you to tap into your own creativity, too.

BE THE SUBJECT

Alleyways, electrical boxes, rooftops... art is everywhere in Fargo, waiting to be found and experienced. Don’t just take a look, immerse yourself in the city’s art culture!

TAKE THE STAGE

Multiple local theater companies put on incredible shows year-round... you just have to know when and where to find them.

In the summer, warm nights can be spent at the outdoor Bluestem Amphitheater, watching Trollwood Performing Arts put on a fabulous musical. Theatre B in Moorhead puts on unique year-round plays, while the Fargo-Moorhead Community Theatre takes The Stage at Island Park. Whichever you attend, prepare yourself for goosebumps.

> Other Must See Performances:
F-M Gay Men’s Chorus
Concordia College Choir
F-M Choral Artists

Beyond theatre, the FM Ballet dances at the iconic Fargo Theatre and the NDSU Festival Concert Hall. Or, check out a performance by the FM Opera, which hosts galas and performs throughout the year. If you’re visiting between September and April, be sure to attend a performance by the Fargo-Moorhead Symphony Orchestra for traditional orchestral music with the occasional contemporary twist.
WE GOT THE Beat

When it comes to music and nightlife, Fargo outdoes itself. Come ready to have some fun and let the city entertain you. Whether you’re looking to laugh, sing along, dance, or exercise your trivia muscles, Fargo has you covered.

Music venues and what to expect

Music brings life to a city. Much like math, it’s a universal language. Here are a few tips for finding the Fargo-Moorhead music venue(s) that best suits your style.

If you’re looking to sit back and enjoy a meal, drink, and good conversations with music in the air, there are a number of spots to choose from. Every Thursday, The HoDo Lounge features live music from a range of musical genres and artists. Junkyard Brewing Company also features singer songwriters almost nightly. Enjoy the sweet notes played by local musicians while tasting regional craft beers at Front Street Taproom.

In the mood for some smooth jazz? Check out Urban 42, or Monday jazz night at Dempsey’s Public House.

When you’re tired of sitting down and want a venue that allows you to cut loose, check out Sidestreet Pub, or sing along with high-energy cover bands at the Pickled Parrot or Shotgun Sally’s. For everything from Irish folk music to tribute bands, stop in at Dempsey’s. Feel like dancing? Head out to the West Fargo VFW.

Curious about the music made by Fargo natives? You should be! The local music scene is comprised of amazing talent and diverse genres. For original music from local and touring bands, The Aquarium is a must-stop spot. Sidestreet and the Red Raven are also popular spots for original artists.

Fargo has been known to draw in some pretty well-known acts such as Paul McCartney, Taylor Swift, The Rolling Stones... need we go on? The top venues for concerts such as these are Bluestem Amphitheatre, Sanctuary Events Center, the Fargo Theatre, and the FARGODOME.

FIND YOUR CROWD IN DOWNTOWN FARGO

> CLASSY
Some of the city’s best cocktails are mixed at MozzaFunk, which is also the #1 restaurant in the state. You can find tasty martinis at the Modo, and interesting concoctions at Fargo’s only dedicated cocktail bar, Twist. Several others, including The Toasted Frog, Rustica, Rosiey’s Bistro, and Level 2 Eat + Drinks also pour great cocktails in cool settings.

> HANGOUTS
Ambience, but not the fancy kind. Dempsey’s is an Irish-style pub with nightly live music and Guinness on tap. Sidestreet has an industrial interior, live music, and 50+ beers on tap. For a more intimate feel in an underground setting, check out The Boiler Room. The huge copper tanks and awesome cocktails at Proof Artisan Distillers make for a pretty cool vibe.

> BEER DRINKERS
A relaxed vibe usually accompanies a great beer hall, and Fargo has them in spades. Wurst Bier Hall pours from 36 taps, Sidestreet from 50, while Front Street Taproom serves only beers made in North Dakota, Minnesota, and South Dakota. Beyond that, spend a night at one of Fargo’s nine brewery locations (pg. 44) with a locally made beer in your hand.

> DANCING
Want to get your dancing shoes on and hit the floor? The Spirit Room hosts swing dancing classes, The Windbreak and both VFWs (downtown & West Fargo) have large dance floors in front of their stages. Live bands play at The Pickled Parrot and Dempsey’s. For a dance club night, check out The OB.

> DIVE BARS
Dark settings, jukebox tunes, and stiff drinks. Stop at Bismarck Tavern, Grain Belt on tap, Blackjack Tables, and some of the nicest, no nonsense type folks around. As one of the oldest bars in town, the Empire Tavern makes a notoriously stiff drink and welcomes all. Duffy’s, Fargo’s genuine, original Irish bar has been a staple for 50+ years. Need live music? Add the VFW to your list of Fargo favorite dive bars.
